

Climbers... ready?

Tree climbing workshop

Fri 25 March – City Park, Launceston

10:00 Workshop begins

On Fri 25 March, climbers are invited to attend a tree climbing workshop at City Park in Launceston. The workshop will cover the basics of competition rules and climbing, with some top tips for experienced competitors.

The 2011 Tasmanian Tree Climbing Championship will be held on Saturday 26 March, at City Park in Launceston. Climbers will compete in a range of disciplines testing different aspects of their tree-climbing skill and ability, with the top competitors going through to climb in the Master's Challenge and represent Tasmania in the 2011 Australian Championship.

Non-competitors will be able to check out some new equipment, watch the events, catch up with old friends and enjoy a day out in good company.

To register, or for details on entry fees and conditions, please contact Robert Murphy on 0417 295 845
